*"The French Connection meets The Matrix.
If it were any hotter, you'd burst into flames."*

– Mike Sargent, WBAI-FM/NEW YORK

ISBN 0-7907-6145-9

Use a computer, go to jail. The terms of Stanley Jobson's parole are clear. Yet a $10-million payday awaits the superhacker if he takes on a job masterminded by a charismatic covert agent – the daring electronic theft of a government slush fund codenamed Swordfish.

John Travolta is the mastermind, Hugh Jackman is the hacker and Halle Berry and Don Cheadle co-star in this volatile high-tech thriller directed by Dominic Sena (Gone in 60 Seconds) and produced by Joel Silver (The Matrix) and Jonathan D. Krane (Face/Off). Log on, tap in, kick back for cyber-edged action and suspense. Your password for excitement is Swordfish.

34 INT. FBI INTERROGATION ROOM - NIGHT

Torvalds sits at a table in a room with a two-way mirror. To his left, a three-piece suited Euroweasel (obviously his LAWYER) nurses a steaming cup of coffee while providing air cover from the two interrogating FBI Agents.

The table is covered with empty coffee cups and cigarette carcasses. Roberts eases quietly into the room in mid-interrogation.

Torvalds says something in "Finnish" to his Lawyer.

AGENT #1

What did he say?

TORVALDS

Da hinten sitzt einer und übersetzt alles!

AGENT #2

All right, look look look
Your client is wanted on 24 counts of electronic crimes in seven different countries --

LAWYER

He has a finish Passport and Finland does not recognize these allegations as crimes. Your laws don't apply

AGENT #1

Do you see a Finnish flag hanging on the wall, Ikea boy?

TORVALDS

Leck mich doch am Arsch, Du blöder Affe!

AGENT #1

What did he say?

LAWYER

He said Ikea is Swedish.

AGENT #1

He understands English?

ROBERTS

Joe, let me talk to him for a minute..

AGENT #2

He's all yours...

AGENT #2

You're fucked up now, Hamlet.

ROBERTS

(never taking his eyes off Torvalds)

See, the thing is, they have you put the furniture together yourselfe...
